From the Desk of Father Jim

Thank you for the many cards, gifts and cookies for Christmas. Your presence at Christmas was also a great gift. We are not at a place where all feel comfortable in a large gathering, so all who desired to be at Christmas mass were not able to be here. We will continue to pray for one another. The CCW has been very generous to our parish in recent months. In early summer, they funded the striping of our new parking lot. Later they purchased a new refrigerator for the rectory to replace the old refrigerator that was not working. In the fall the carpeting to the front steps of the rectory was replaced. This was not only attractive but a safety improvement due to the old carpeting being torn. Lastly, the parish office and meeting space floor was re-finished. Beneath the old carpeting was a hardwood floor that is now very attractive.

The recent bazaar was only the latest effort of CCW to support our parish. They meet ongoing needs with the purchase of the hosts and help pay for cleaning of the church. Seriously, they are such a fun group that they allow a few men to join the fish fry activity! Thank you very much.

Thanks to all of you who donated gifts or funds toward the Advent Project. A family enjoyed gifts for Christmas because of your generosity. Thanks to Shirley Zimmer for her time and efforts to make this year another success.

Donation books for the year are closing this Sunday. Thanks for the donations during 2021.
